- 2.8 The Compliance Officer shall maintain all records under the Code and SEBI PIT Regulations for a minimum period of five (5) years.
- 2.9 The Compliance Officer shall in consultation with the Board inform the Stock Exchanges of any violation of the SEBI PIT Regulations or the Code in such form and such manner as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.
- 2.10 The Compliance Officer shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available.

3. Preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

3.1 Confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would-

- a. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011 ("Takeover Regulations") where the Board is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;

b. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the SEBI Takeover Regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is disseminated to be made Generally Available Information at least 2 (two) Trading Days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

3.2 Chinese Wall and Crossing of Chinese wall

The Chinese wall means there is an invisible wall between the Departments who have UPSI with the other departments who do not have access to UPSI.

Crossing of Chinese wall means, when any employee of the Department which possesses UPSI is required to share such UPSI with any employee of any department which does not have access to UPSI.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, when the need arises that any Designated Person or any other individual is required to cross the Chinese wall, it shall be done only with prior written permission of the Compliance Officer. Individuals should be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Inside Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information by the Compliance Officer.

3.3 Need to Know

“Need to know” means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty.

3.4 Limited access to UPSI

Files containing UPSI shall be kept secure. The Computer(s) accessing such files must have adequate security of login and password, so as to ensure the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

4. Trading Restrictions

All Designated Persons, their immediate relatives, Fiduciaries and Insiders shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below:-

4.1 Trading Window

Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the designated persons.

4.2 Trading Window Closure

The trading window shall be closed in the manner as specified below. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed. The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

4.3 The trading period

The trading period of the stock exchanges, called ‘trading window’, is available for trading in the Company’s securities.

The trading window shall be closed as and when the Compliance Officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. The Trading Window shall re-open after 48 hours of information becoming generally available.

4.4 The trading window restrictions mentioned above shall not apply in respect of –

- (a) transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of SEBI PIT Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Board;
- (b) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

Trading window shall also be closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

4.5 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated persons of the Company.

4.6 All Designated persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open and if the value of the proposed trades is Rs. 10 Lakhs and above during the quarter, should pre-clear the transaction from the Compliance Officer. (Pre-clearance Form to be enclosed as Annexure 1). The pre-clearance procedure shall be as follows:

- (i) An application should be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number and value of securities that the Designated Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this behalf.
- (ii) An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company and addressed to the Compliance Officer by such Designated Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - (a) That the Designated person does not have any access or has not received “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing the undertaking;
 - (b) That in case the Designated Person has access to or receives “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his/her position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public;
 - (c) that he/she has not contravened code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by Designated Persons as notified by the Company from time to time; and

(d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

Note: The Compliance Officer shall have regard to whether any such undertaking is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

(iii) Compliance Officer, if satisfied, shall give approval for Pre-clearance application in the format as specified in Annexure 3.

(iii) All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven (7) trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. The Designated Persons shall file within two (2) trading days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in Form C (Annexure 4). In case the transaction is not undertaken after pre-clearance, reporting to that effect shall be filed with the Compliance Officer in prescribed form (Annexure 5) within two (2) trading days of completion of 7th trading day from granting of pre-clearance.

(iv) If the order is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the Designated Persons must pre-clear the transaction again.

(v) All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction/contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. However, no such contra trade will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

(vi) In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

(vii) The restriction of contra trade shall not apply for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

5. Trading Plan

5.1 Each Designated Person is entitled to execute Trades pursuant of a pre-determined trading plan, where such trading plan has been formulated by such Designated Persons, approved by the Compliance Officer, and has been publicly disclosed by the Company to the Stock Exchanges, one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days prior to the commencement of the Trading pursuant to the trading plan (“Trading Plan”). In accordance with the SEBI PIT Regulations, provisions relating to pre-clearance of Trades and Trading Window Closure period shall not be applicable for Trades executed pursuant to an approved Trading Plan.

5.2 Trading Plan shall be formulated by Designated Persons in compliance with the SEBI PIT Regulations, including any statutory modification(s) or re-enactment(s) for the time being in force.

5.3 The Compliance Officer shall approve or reject the Trading Plan within two (2) trading days of receipt of the trading plan and shall take necessary undertakings / declarations from the applicant Designated Person presenting such a Trading Plan, as may be necessary on a case by case basis. Once approved and published in accordance with the Insider Trading Regulations, the Trading Plan shall be irrevocable, and the said Designated Person(s) shall mandatorily implement the Trades as per the Trading Plan in accordance with the provisions of the SEBI PIT Regulations.

5.4 The implementation of the Trading Plan shall not commence if any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of commencement of the implementation and in such an event, the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such Unpublished Price sensitive Information becomes Generally Available Information.

6. Disclosure/Reporting by the Designated Persons

6.1 Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within 7 days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

6.2 Designated Persons shall disclose in the prescribed form (Annexure 6), the names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized under law of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis (within thirty (30) days from the end of financial year) and as and when the information changes:

(i) Immediate Relatives;

(ii) persons with whom such Designated Person(s) shares a Material Financial Relationship;
and

(iii) Phone or mobile numbers which are used by them.

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation – The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated person during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

- 6.3 The Designated Persons shall report the level of their holdings (including that of their immediate relatives) in securities of the Company annually (within thirty (30) days from the end of financial year) as being necessary to monitor compliance with the SEBI PIT Regulations.
- 6.4 Any other disclosures required to be made by the Designated Persons under the SEBI PIT Regulations must be made accordingly as per the formats prescribed therein.

7. Penalty for contravention of the code

- 7.1 Every Designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code.
- 7.2 Any Designated Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be liable for penalties and appropriate action may be taken by the Company.
- 7.3 Designated Person who violates the Code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery and clawback’ etc.
- 7.4 The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of SEBI PIT Regulations.

8. Information to SEBI on violation of Code

In case it is observed that any provision of the SEBI PIT Regulations is violated by any Designated person the same shall be informed by the Compliance Officer to the Board promptly.

9. Protection of the Informant under the SEBI PIT Regulations

In accordance with Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2019, the Company shall not discharge, terminate, demote, suspend or threaten directly or indirectly or discriminate against any employee who files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by SEBI, by reason of: (i) filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form; (ii) testifying in, participating in, or otherwise assisting or aiding SEBI in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of insider trading laws or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by SEBI; or (iii) breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement solely to prevent such employee from cooperating with SEBI in any manner.

In the event any employee is of the view, that he is likely to be discharged, terminated, demoted or suspended, or is being threatened, or discriminated, on account of any of the events set forth in the preceding paragraph, such employee shall be permitted to notify the Compliance Officer of the same. In the event, the Compliance Officer is subject to the foregoing, the Compliance Officer shall be permitted to bring such information to the notice of SEBI.

Explanation. - For the purposes of the above provision, “employee” means any individual who during employment may become privy to information relating to violation of insider trading laws and files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under the SEBI PIT Regulations and is a director, partner, regular or contractual employee, but does not include an advocate.
